TASTING NOTES

The wine has a medium ruby colour, with intense fruity aromas, like ripe cherry, raspberry, plum and blackberry, with a hint of vanilla, tobacco and smoky, toasty oak. It has an elegant body, with ripe and fine-grained tannins, in balance with nice acidity. The flavours are complex, the red and black fruits are in harmony with the lingering flavours of herb and earthy aromas. It has a pleasant and persistent oaky finish. Everything is in the right place to develop. The wine has a long potential for ageing when stored in proper conditions.

Vinca Benedict is named in the honour of Pope Benedict XIV who granted the village the right to hold a festival on Holy Cross Day in 1754.
